U.S. Environmental Protection Agency* (553 F.3d 927) that must be in place by April 9, 2011. The purpose of this NPDES general permit is to establish additional requirements for point source discharges from the application of pesticides to waters of the state. These requirements will be consistent with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) pesticide general permit requirements published under 40 CFR 122. The NPDES general permit pertains to pesticide applications on waters of the state of Indiana and land areas adjacent to waters of the state.

- (1) discharge pesticides to waters of the state from the application of biological pesticides or chemical pesticides that leave a residue of the pesticide or its degradates; and
